Memorandum

* As will these be Laws:

That all those Laws contained in this book being fourteen and four in number and written in 249 pages were copied over to the Plantation office in Whidbey from the original Laws then in the custody of Mr. John Williams & Thomas and John Dering Esq<sup>r</sup>s and were carefully examined by Mr. John Whidbey on the month of December 1695.
